NLP Hypnosis Centre Code Of Ethics

Olivier Hidalgo is a member of the NGH, National Guild Of Hypnotists.

The National Guild Of Hypnotists requires its members to conform to the following ethical principles, and shall hold all members accountable for any departure from these principles.

- Client Welfare: Members shall make the physical and mental well-being of each client a prime consideration.
- Client Safety: Members shall not engage in verbal, physical or sexual abuse of any client.
- Practice Limits: Members shall use hypnotism strictly within the limits of their training and competence and in conformity to the laws of their state or province.
- Advertising: Members should be truthful in their advertising.
- Referred Practice: Members shall engage in hypnotic work with a client regarding a medical or mental disease only with written referral from and appropriately license medical or mental health professional, except otherwise provide by state/province law.
- Colleagues: Members shall treat hypnotist colleagues without defamation.
- Reasonable Practice: Members shall withhold non-referred hypnotic work with a client services if a client's behaviour, appearance or statements would lead a reasonable person to believe that the client should be evaluated by a licensed health care professional. Members shall provide services to such clients only after evaluation and with the approval of the licensed health care professional.
